DI2E
Defense Intelligence Information Enterprise

We exhibited in the Intelligence and National Security Summit 2022 in National Harbor, Maryland and found the panel speakers to be innovative and interesting.

Our NYC XP & Agile Meetup welcomed two guest speakers: Nadya Ichinomiya of Sony Pictures Sony's Servant Leadership Journey and Daidree Tofano of Organisational Agility at Genomics England to discuss Coaching Leaders.

Announcement of our partnership - Octo to offer a DI2E alternative and a range of fully managed and cloud-hosted DevOps/ALM solutions customized to the needs of your teams. Learn more: arielpartners.com/di2e/

Ariel Partners is excited to announce that the Social Security Administration OIG has issued a report based on the work we performed for them over the last two years. Among the services and expertise provided by Ariel Partners was a review of the body of work the Office of the Inspector General (OIG) has done with respect to auditing agile software development projects, providing training and coaching to OIG staff, and developing a comprehensive Audit Program. The report is available at https://oig.ssa.gov/audit-reports/2022-08-29-agile-software-development-at-the-social-security-administration/

"If you boil all of today's fancy frameworks and toolkits down to the core essence that works, you will find Kanban."

– CTO of Ariel Partners, Craeg Strong

Our CTO recently earned his AKC credential & spoke at the Kanban Global Summit 2022 on August 24. His session was entitled: "Now You See It, Observing Flow Using Kanban Boards", and he featured the latest breakthroughs and state of the art for Agile/Kanban tools.
