Ariel Partners and Kanban Zone Partner to Enhance Business Agility Across Teams and Enterprises

(01 June 2022) New York, NY – Ariel Partners, a leading IT firm offering Agile and Enterprise Coaching, Training, and Consulting, announced that they have partnered with Kanban Zone, a visual collaboration platform that provides effective Kanban best practices and solutions that connect work processes across an organization. Ariel Partners supports executive management and senior leadership in monitoring large-scale efforts by tailoring agile practices to allow for better planning, governance, and developing realistic estimates and forecasts. Ariel recommends KanbanZone for students of their Kanban classes as an excellent way to get started, particularly for non-IT groups.

Kanban Zone is a company in Arizona committed to software and methods for organizations to continuously improve productivity and unleash the full potential of an organization. As a Kanban Zone Partner, Ariel Partners have forged a partnership to work with organizations and agile coaches creating solutions that align with company goals and leadership.

“A fantastic Kanban tool for multi-team coordination. Kanban Zone is extremely intuitive and easy to use and has incredibly responsive support. The “mirror” feature is a powerful way to show what another team is doing. Highly recommended!” – Craig Strong, CTO of Ariel Partners

Starting immediately, Ariel Partners now offers public Kanban Zone training courses using lean visual portfolio management. Students work through Kanban practices that enable full collaboration across all levels of a business organization. Kanban Zone enables leaders to visualize complex value streams, connect every workflow to achieve complete process transparency, and continuously access metrics and analytics to improve performance.

“Kanban Zone has now become an essential tool for running my business. It has helped us organize all our projects and our teams to better collaborate. This solution is much more flexible and customizable than most we have seen. Great tool!” – Jerome Guidollet, CEO of Tuango Inc.
